I have read and accept the terms of registration at hemslojdeniskane.se/registration-for-the-seminar

On the following page you will registrate if you want to partictpate in:

- Day one: Basketfest Sunday 29 September, on-site in Landskrona only.
- Day two: Seminar/webinar Monday 30 September, on-site in Landskrona or on-line via Zoom

The Basketfest on 29 September, on-site in Landskrona

I want to participate in day one, the Basketfest on 29 September.
On-site in Landskrona only.

The fee is SEK 500 and includes the workshops, coffee/tea and food in the evening. There is a maximum of 30 participants and within two weeks of your registration, you will receive a confirmation that your place is reserved. Approximately 30 days before the seminar, an invoice for the participation fee is sent out to the email address above. The final payment date appears on the invoice. The registration is binding.

Food allergies

If you are a basket maker, you can bring baskets with you to display. You can also demonstrate your work. There will be tables and chairs for this. Explain in a few words what you want to show and we will contact you and plan for this.

The seminar/webinar on 30 September, on-site in Landskrona

I want to participate in day two, the basket seminar/webinar on 30 September
On-site in Landskrona.

The fee is SEK 700 and include all lectures, coffee/tea and lunch. There is a maximum of 30 participants and within two weeks of your registration, you will receive a confirmation that your place is reserved. Approximately 30 days before the seminar, an invoice for the participation fee is sent out to the email address above. The final payment date appears on the invoice. The registration is binding.

I am a member of the The Swedish association of baskets and basketry and have a SEK 200 discount on the seminar cost (the fee will be SEK 500).

Food allergies

At the end of the day, we will have a session where the audience can ask questions or talk about a basket-related event, exhibition or similar. We will distribute this according to time availability, but it will be a maximum of a few minutes per person. Explain in a few words if you want a time slot and what you want to talk about. We will then contact you before the seminar for planning. You can also choose only to submit your basket-related post in text only and we will spread it to all participants. In that case you can send your contribution to korg@hemslojdeniskane.se

The seminar/webinar on 30 September, on-line via Zoom

I want to participate digitally on-line for free.

A Zoom link will be e-mailed to your specified e-mail address one week before the webinar. You need to have access to internet during the whole webinar. You do not need any specific app to join.

At the end of the day, we will have a session where the audience (both on-site and online participants) can ask questions or inform about basket-related event, exhibition or similar. We will distribute this according to time availability, but it will be a maximum of a few minutes per person. Explain in a few words if you want a time slot and what you want to share. We will contact you before the seminar for planning. You can also choose only to submit your basket-related post in text only and we will spread it to all participants. In that case you can e-mail your information to korg@hemslojdeniskane.se
